*By January 15, please send two (2) copies of the application materials listed below to:
Dr. Patricia Dewey, Arts & Administration Program, 5230 University of Oregon, Eugene, OR 97403-5230*

1. Please attach to this form a current résumé including the following items:
 - Previous colleges attended, major(s), degree, year completed
 - Employment experience
 - Other work or volunteer experience
 - Honors, awards, grants, etc.

2. Please include with your application materials a three-to-four page statement.
 - Describe what specifically about the arts management program at the University of Oregon meets your interests and needs as a doctoral music student.
 - Include a short autobiographical sketch focusing on experiences that have led you to seek your prospective doctoral primary and supporting areas of study.

3. Please let us know if you are having one or two reference letters (in addition to those you are having sent to the School of Music and Dance) sent to us from former employers or professors who may be better able to comment on your potential in the field of arts administration. Or, include these reference letters in separate envelopes along with the application packet you send to the Arts and Administration Program. Also, if desired, please send any scholarly writing samples you would like included in your Arts and Administration application file.

4. An interview may be required either by telephone or in person.
